

Fraser's Property Thailand's 'Pay It Forward: Sharing Knowledge with Children' Initiative

Bangkok, 24 OCTOBER 2024

Mr. Somboon Wasinchutchawal (standing, eighth from right), Chief Financial Officer and Acting Chief Executive Officer of Residential Business of Fraser's Property (Thailand) Public Company Limited, or "FPT", along with Mr. Peerapat Srisukont (standing, fifth from left), Acting Chief Executive Officer of Industrial Business of FPT, and FPT employees, organised the 'FPT Pay It Forward: Sharing the Knowledge' initiative at Ban Rawoeng School in Si Racha District, Chonburi. The school is located near Fraser's Property Logistics Park (Eastern Seaboard 3).

FPT has developed projects within Thailand's provincial areas and recognises the importance of engaging with and contributing to the development of communities around its developments. The 'Pay It Forward' initiative was one of the outcomes of FPT's efforts to listen to, and understand the needs of its local communities. Launched at Ban Rawoeng School, FPT donated computers, educational materials, sports equipment, safety gear, and a vegetable garden to the students. The company also organised a training session for teachers on basic first aid, enabling them to assist students in emergency situations and enhancing safety knowledge for staff and students alike.
