Carols by candlelight a hit with locals

Actor David Berry the perfect host at Discovery Point's carols concert

Sydney – 23 December 2015 – Frasers Property Australia's Discovery Point community at Wollie Creek was awash with light, music and entertainment on Sunday evening as the locals celebrated the festive season at Discovery Point Park's Christmas Carols by Candlelight concert hosted by 'A Place to Call Home' actor David Berry.

The event kicked off at 5pm with food and gift stalls as well as free children's entertainment including face painting, jumping castle and 'reindeer' rides provided by local retailers Orange Supermarket, Top Impression Bakery and AIGO Beauty and Health Mall.

The growing crowd was also entertained by community ukulele group WUUKERs before the sun set on the afternoon's frivolities and the candlelight caroling began.

The park was soon flooded with cheerful, singing voices and bright candle sticks that held up for many hours before the evening eventually wrapped up, with many residents coming away with new friends along with their Christmas cheer.

Nigel Edgar, General Manager - NSW Residential Division, Frasers Property Australia, said the cheerful local gathering perfectly represented the warmth of the Discovery Point community at large, which had grown so organically and embraced each new resident so wholly over the past few years.

"We are extremely proud of our Discovery Point masterplanned community and the residents that have made it home," Mr Edgar said.

"As Frasers Property prepares to launch the precinct's final building to the market in 2016, it is difficult to overlook the huge contribution that buyers and residents to date have made in creating a true community at Discovery Point."
