Jindowie residents keeping the Christmas tradition alive

Perth – December 2015 – The Jindowie estate will once again be transformed into an outdoor movie theatre this December as part of the developer’s annual Christmas calendar.

To mark the start of the festive season, the annual Jindowie Christmas movie night will take place on Saturday, 12 December 2015 with residents and local members of the community invited to gather together to enjoy festive family activities and gourmet food and coffee stations.

Entertainment starts at 5.30pm at Kalbarri Park, with a special screening of The Grinch at 7.45pm. Following on from the success of last year’s event, residents were invited to vote for their most loved Christmas movie to be aired this year, with family friendly frontrunner The Grinch taking out first place.

Santa Claus will also put in an appearance prior to the movie screening, with guests treated to face painting and other fun entertainment.

Jindowie Residents Association Treasurer Mike Gould said the event was easily one of the most popular additions to the community calendar.

“With free face painting, a visit from Santa and a Christmas flick, there’s sure to be something for everyone,” Mr Gould said.

“Every year this event proves to be more and more popular with increasing members of the community joining in the festive spirit.”

Frasers Property Australia General Manager – WA Tony Perrin said the event was the perfect opportunity for residents to come together and enjoy quality time with friends and family.

“We hope to keep this Christmas tradition alive for many more years,” Mr Perrin said.

“It’s a great way for new residents to be welcomed into the community and for visitors to get a feel for the lifestyle and community on offer at the estate.”

Those attending are asked to bring picnic blankets, beanbags and low lying chairs.
