Local events light up festive spirit at Fairwater

Frasers Property provides the platform for stronger community ties

Sydney – 6 December 2016 – Frasers Property Australia's Fairwater is a peaceful, tranquil community most of the time, but right now it's a hive of activity as residents and the wider Blacktown community join together for a series of neighbourhood events.

From cultural celebrations to a Christmas gathering, Fairwater's regular community initiatives are getting everyone together.

Earlier this month, Light the Night at Fairwater was a unique event that showcased the community from a different perspective and paid homage to the Diwali Festival of Lights, celebrating Hindu culture.

The event included stunning light displays, lantern making workshops, a water lantern release over the lake and a Thai themed dinner.

And in the spirit of Christmas, the Fairwater Christmas Party for residents was held last weekend at Fairwater Park. The evening included a Christmas themed BBQ served with festive eggnog, a lucky dip for the kids and a visit from the man himself, Santa Claus.

Nigel Edgar, General Manager - Residential NSW for Frasers Property Australia, says initiatives to bring people together helps build strong relationships among Fairwater residents and the extended community.

"There's a wonderfully diverse mix of residents who call Fairwater home and who are keen to enjoy their natural surroundings and be an active community. Our recent Light the Night event was a great cultural celebration and the Christmas Party was similarly enjoyed by both residents and a strong local crowd too," Mr Edgar says.

"Christmas is the perfect time of year for residents to gather to celebrate the growing community spirit at Fairwater. It's been a big year and we're all looking forward to seeing what 2017 holds."

The recent appointment of Community Development Officer Anton Gordevich at Fairwater has spurred numerous events to encourage residents to interact and get to know each other better.

"Anton has a passion for community engagement and facilitating the type of programs that promote the health and wellbeing of our residents, and foster strong relationships within the community," Mr Edgar says.

"Having Anton on board at Fairwater has been incredibly positive for the community. Residents are constantly stopping him in the street or at the Fairwater Cafe to have a chat; they recognise him like a neighbour."

With the development now close to one-third completed, there are plenty of opportunities to join the Fairwater community. Released earlier this month, The Boardwalk Collection features an exclusive range of two, three, four and five bedroom homes with the new addition of spacious three storey homes fronting the lake.

The Boardwalk Collection's townhomes and terraces range from $573,000 to $1,053,000.

The Fairwater Display Village and Sales Centre is open seven days a week between 11am and 4pm. Visit www.fairwaterliving.com.au or call 13 38 38 for further information.
