Singapore, 18 July 2017 – Frasers Centrepoint Limited (“FCL” or the “Group”) is pleased to announce that it was awarded the Bronze award for Best Investor Relations at this year’s Singapore Corporate Awards, in the category for listed companies with market capitalisation of S$1 billion and above. The award recognises the Group’s outstanding efforts in adhering to exemplary corporate governance practices and disclosure standards, as well as best practices in investor relations.

Mr. Chia Khong Shoong, Chief Corporate Officer and Chief Financial Officer of FCL, said, “We are honoured to receive this prestigious award. We see investor relations as a commitment to FCL’s shareholders, and are pleased that our continuous efforts in improving corporate governance and engaging with the investment community have been recognised.”

The Singapore Corporate Awards was launched in 2005 to pay tribute to companies that uphold excellent corporate governance practices, and is co-organised by The Business Times, Singapore Institute of Directors and Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants. It is also supported by the Singapore Exchange as well as the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority.

The winners of the Best Investor Relations award were selected through a rigorous process. FCL was first shortlisted after the preliminary screening round based on its score on the Singapore Governance and Transparency Index, the comprehensiveness and user-friendliness of its investor relations website and/or annual report. Some factors taken into consideration are the types and quality of information provided and speed of downloads. Shortlisted candidates were then meticulously reviewed and evaluated by a panel of judges based on information provided by the companies.
