Brookhaven hosts first Christmas in the Park

Community spirit to drive a worthy cause

Brisbane – 30 November 2017 – Frasers Property Australia’s masterplanned community Brookhaven in Logan City is set to host its first community Christmas charity event on Saturday 2nd December.

Brookhaven’s Christmas Movie in the Park is a free community event to kick off the festive season and a chance to give back and help make Christmas a little bit brighter for families and children.

The free community event will feature a screening of Disney’s The Search for Santa Paws and a special visit from Santa and his helpers.

As this is a free event, Frasers Property is asking attendees to bring a present to go underneath the charity Christmas tree, which will be donated to the Family and Kids Care Foundation Inc. to support underprivileged children.

In support of Family and Kids Care Foundation Inc., Frasers Property will continue to accept presents until 18 December.

Cameron Leggatt, General Manager Residential Queensland for Frasers Property Australia, says this will be an inaugural Christmas event that is planned to be held annually at Brookhaven.

“Brookhaven has been designed with the community in mind, so this is a great event for our new residents to get to know their neighbours while supporting a worthy cause,” Mr Leggatt said.

The event will also include free popcorn, fairy floss, snow cones, sausage sizzle, live entertainment, a pop-up café, ‘Life Be In It’ games, a letter to Santa workshop and an inflatable snow dome with fake snow.

Brookhaven’s Christmas Movie in the Park will screen on Saturday 2nd December at 33 Menora Road, Bahrs Scrub from 5pm – 8pm.

Onsite parking is available at the sales centre as well as extra parking available along Bronzewing Circuit.
