SYDNEY, 2 MAY 2022

Frasers Property Australia has appointed company veteran Cameron Jackson to the role of General Manager Development NSW, effective 2 May 2022.

A highly experienced Development Director and part of the Frasers Property team for over 20 years, Mr Jackson has been involved in the design and delivery of several landmark projects including Fairwater at Blacktown, Tailor's Walk at Botany and Midtown MacPark.

Cameron Leggatt, Executive General Manager Development, Frasers Property Australia says Mr Jackson's extensive and successful track record in progressing complex, mixed-use developments involving many stakeholders makes him the ideal candidate for the role.

"Cameron's strong experience across design and delivery, will ensure our New South Wales developments continue to deliver high-quality outcomes for our customers and communities," Mr Leggatt says.

"After 24 years with Frasers Property, Cameron has played an instrumental role on some of our most successful projects and I'm excited to be working with him as we look to further grow the business which Nigel has so successfully nurtured," says Mr Leggatt.

Mr Jackson says he's excited by the opportunity to lead such a successful and established team at such a pivotal time in the business.

"We have a strong pipeline of large scale, high-quality, mixed-use projects currently underway that will serve as great examples of the strong communities Frasers Property creates," he says.

Mr Jackson takes over from industry stalwart Nigel Edgar. Mr Edgar has led the Frasers Property's development activities in New South Wales for the past 12 years and previously held a variety of other roles within the business around Australia. Mr Edgar moves to a new General Manager National Development role working on a range of projects and initiatives of broad significance where his business wide experience can be leveraged.

Mr Jackson's appointment follows an extensive process that considered both internal and external applicants.
