

Frasers Property Europe appoints Arno van Geet as new CFRO

- ◆ Arno van Geet joins Frasers Property Europe from Bouwinvest, where he was CFRO for the past four years
- ◆ Tom de Witte has decided to leave the company after more than three years of service

AMSTERDAM, 1 FEBRUARY 2019

Frasers Property Europe announces that Mr. Arno van Geet will be assuming the role of Chief Financial and Risk Officer from 1 April 2019. The appointment follows the decision of current CFRO, Mr. Tom de Witte, to step down and leave the company. As CFRO and a member of the management board, Arno's leadership and expertise will play an important role in Frasers Property Europe's growth strategy, working closely with teams across the Netherlands, Germany, Singapore and Australia. He will be based in Amsterdam.

Arno joins the company after four years as CFRO at Bouwinvest, a leading Dutch real estate investor that manages EUR 12.0 billion globally. Before that, he worked at Interpolis, Achmea and Allianz Netherlands Group, where he was CFRO for eight years. Previously he served as CFRO at large, listed firms, gaining valuable experience growing businesses internationally.

Tom joined Geneba Properties, Frasers Property Europe's predecessor, as CFRO in 2015. At Geneba Properties, he played a decisive role in growing the portfolio in line with the company's strategy, driving major acquisitions and divestments. Geneba Properties was subsequently acquired by Frasers Property Limited in July 2017, following which Tom played a significant role in the transition as well as in the acquisition of Alpha Industrial in 2018.

CEO, Dr. Wulf Meinel: "We are very grateful to Tom for his efforts over the past three years in which we created a leading real estate platform in logistics and light industrial properties in core European markets. I enjoyed working with Tom during the exciting and busy past years and wish him all the best in his future endeavours. We welcome Arno to our team and I have full confidence that Frasers Property Europe will greatly benefit from his qualities and experience. I look forward to working closely with him in further developing the company."
