

Parents can look forward to bringing their children to The Centrepoint's Barnyard-themed balloon festival, featuring an air-filled barnyard and animals sculpted entirely from balloons by Guinness World Record-setting artist, Lily Tan. The festival promises to fascinate parents and their children in an immersive world of kaleidoscopic colours, balloon sculpting workshops and magical balloon shows. Participants can also walk away with a photo memento with a minimum spend of S$10 at the mall.

Makers' Workshops (7 – 30 October all over mall, 15 – 30 October 2016 at selected stores)

Makers' Marketplace (7-9 October and 14 – 16 October 2016)

With over 15 different professional makers and over 20 different craft, cooking and technology demos and workshops, the Maker's Festival at The Centrepoint is a three-part, many tentacled extravaganza of creativity and interactivity. The festival consists of the Maker's Block at the Atrium, Makers' Workshops, and Makers' Marketplace at Basement 2.

Starting on 7 October, head down to The Centrepoint's new Food Hall at Basement 2 to experience the Makers' Marketplace featuring local artisans selling one-of-a-kind hand-crocheted bears, hand-made jewellery, upcycled homewares and more.

From old-school craftsmanship like leather crafting to mind-boggling technology like virtual reality, there's plenty everyone in the family would be interested to take home in one of the many extraordinary workshops. Be among the first 600 participants to complete four workshops and receive a $10 The Centrepoint Gift Card.

Collect The Makers Festival Passport at Customer Service and receive a sticker after completing each workshop. Four stickers need to be collected on the passport to receive a $10 The Centrepoint Gift Card.*

Step into The Centrepoint's Latest Food Precincts

Discover the latest concepts at The Centrepoint with international food and beverage enclave, Gastro+, and a brand new Food Hall at Basement 1 and 2, filled with exciting international flavours and old favourites.

GASTRO⁺

Gastro+ is the refurbished wing housing international brand names and first-in-Singapore food concepts, such as Honolulu Café, Mak's Noodles and Souper Tang.

New-to-Singapore Brands

Kyoaji Japanese Dining, #04-17/18

Kyoaji stands for 'Taste from Kyoto', and this cosy Japanese restaurant is here to bring you just that: The freshest sashimi and seafood from Japan! This first-in-Singapore restaurant is decorated with warm interiors to immerse you in the Japanese way of dining and culture, and an extensive menu to satisfy your taste buds.

Souper Tang, #02-52 & #02-K01

This first-in-Singapore restaurant serves nourishing soups and dishes skilfully enhanced with Chinese herbs and packed with the flavourful punch that all great Chinese food is known for. You can expect the Souper Tang Signature Soup arriving at your table teeming with canopy (dried scallop), shiitake mushrooms, American ginseng slices, ginseng root, cordyceps flower and fish maw. Bite into whole pieces of chicken and savour the glutinous rice wine that makes the broth really delicious!

Mak's Noodles, #01-63/64

For a quick pick-me-up, another Hong Kong favourite that has opened in Singapore for the first time is Mak's Noodles. Time to try these world-renown wonton noodles if you haven't already! Its succulent prawn wonton and delicate noodles will definitely have you craving for more!

Honolulu Café, #01-33F/G

If you've always loved Hong Kong's Cha Chaan Teng vibes where you get served British-Meets-Chinese old-school Hong Kong snacks in a no-frills coffee-shop setting, you should make a bee-line to Honolulu Café. The must-try is their famous egg-tarts which go so well with their other specialty – Hong Kong Milk Tea. Their egg tarts are known to have a soft, silky custard centre, held together by a flaky, crispy paste made of 192 layers.

Other Popular Brands/New Concepts

Astons Steak & Salad, #03-28/28A

Looking for a really satisfying and affordable family-friendly restaurant? Try Astons Steak and Salad which features a free-flow, all-you-can-eat buffet and salad bar with over 80 hot and cold sides. Beverages and desserts are also provided by the way (only at The Centrepoint)! Make sure you arrive ready to eat so you get every penny's worth!

Chicken Up, #01-33H

If Korean food is more your thing, you definitely need to try Singapore's #1 Korean fried chicken and other authentic Korean dishes at Chicken Up! One of their bestsellers is the sweet, tangy and crispy Yangnyum Up (pronounced as "Yang-Yum" which means "sauce" in Korean) fried chicken or if you like your chicken garlicky, Ganjung Up is the garlic-soy based version of it. Their other top-sellers also include Kimchi fries, Bulgogi fries, Kimchi pancake and Jap Chae, what more can you ask for when you say Korean comfort food?

Ollie Kitchen & Bar, #01-33M

Love yourself a cosy cafe? You should give Ollie Kitchen & Bar a try. They are coffee specialists who happen to do really great burgers, and serves all your favourite comfort foods as well. From all-day breakfasts to burgers, this place would make anyone feel at home in a second. Can you imagine tucking into the scrumptious Ollie breakfast or a juicy Woody Wood Piper burger, plus a cup of Joe made with the right amount of care?

Song Fa Bak Ku Teh, #02-29/30

Song Fa Bak Kut Teh actually started from very humble beginnings in the 1960s, selling bowls of piping hot Bak Kut Teh from a single pushcart stall on the streets of Singapore. Today, preserving the legacy of old recipes and techniques, they still serve tender, melt-off-the-bone pork ribs in flavourful, peppery, spice-infused broth.

Food Hall

Food Hall at Basement 1 and 2 features Cold Storage with a new in-store dining concept, Royal London Duck, TenSho, Tino's Pizza Café, as well as a variety of grab-and-go, old-school local delights and necessities stores.

Tensho, #B1-20

You don't have to break your bank for a bowl of quality goodness, especially at Tensho (天勝) by MOF, where they pride themselves on wholesome and delicious food at affordable prices. The fragrance of Hokkaido rice topped with fresh Ebi prawns, eggs, fish and pumpkin slices – there you go, a satisfying bowl of tendon for any day, anytime!

Tino's Pizza Café, #B1-13

Using premium dough, Tino's Pizza Café's pizzas are lovingly hand-crafted with perfect charred crusts and topped with rich ingredients before being oven-baked for maximum goodness. Each pizza is a work of art, and nothing beats enjoying a fresh, hand-tossed pizza in a café-style setting in the heart of Orchard Road.

Royal London Duck, #B1-12

Royal London Duck offers a huge selection of authentic Cantonese fare like Hong-Kong Style Noodles with Fresh Shrimp Wantons, Char Siew, Shatin Chicken Porridge, and many more. If you are a Dim Sum goer, you will love the fact that they serve all-day Dim Sums, with each dish freshly made upon order. Needless to say, their signature London Roast Duck and Black Pepper London Duck Bun is a must-try!

Texas Chicken, #B1-07

Texas Chicken might not be the newest kid in the block, but this fourth-largest chicken restaurant chain in the world has a one-of-a-kind menu which makes people go back for more. Using their signature 8-piece cut, the chicken is marinated and cooked to a unique, golden perfection. Each set comes complete with their signature mash potatoes and honey-butter biscuit – classic American comfort food.

Pho Street, #B1-14

Served in a light yet flavourful broth, a piping bowl of Pho from Pho Street hits the spot every time. With the best of Vietnamese's street delights available on its menu, you can expect to savour your favourite Pho, Banh Mi and Rice Vermicelli served with your choice of meat. Vietnamese cuisine is also well-known for street snacks which you can order as sides to share with your friends. And of course, complete your meal with a refreshing glass of Lemongrass drink!

MOS Burger, #B1-06

MOS Burger started out as a hamburger shop venture in Japan in 1972 and fast forward to today, it has evolved into one of our favourite fast food chains in Singapore. Their signature rice burger, available in four different flavours Ebi, Kakiage, Yakiniiku and Tsukune are to die for, and a definitely must-try if you have not. Complete your meal with French fries, salad, or MOS Chicken, plus a cup of Iced Milk Tea, and you are all set for a great start to the day!

Cold Storage, #B1-09/10

Cold Storage is one of the leading supermarket chains in Singapore with 54 stores to date. Take a walk down the aisles and you'll realise that they carry an extensive range of brands to satisfy their gourmet-loving customers. This latest outlet at The Centrepoint will introduce a deli-grocer concept for shoppers to enjoy a quick meal on-the-go.
